

Abstract Proceedings of the Travancore Legislative Council.

6th March 1891.

The Council resumed its meeting.

Present

MARy Shungarathy Avargal presiding

Mr. J. Watto

MARy Rajaram Row Avargal

MARy Shamu Pillay Avargal

MARy K. Keelacunda Pillay Avargal

MARy Sivan Pillay Avargal

It was resolved that Section 342 should stand over for consideration.

MARy Rajaram Row Avargal proposed a new section 341 A as follows:-

"The Special Appellate Judge appointed under Our Proclamation dated 22nd March 1891 shall hear and dispose of appeals from the decision of our Special Magistrates and shall record their proceedings.

Carried.

The question of bringing in the privilege of Residents' officers and military Sepoys of the British into the Code was brought up by MARy Rajaram Row Avargal and discussed. Resolved that it was not necessary to provide for it in the Code.

Mr. Watto moved to omit the words "Select Committee" addition to the definition of pleader that carried.

MARy Rajaram Row Avargal proposed to amend the section 41 by defining summary case as meaning a case relating to an offence punishable with fine only if in person.

meant not existing six months or with both and a warrant case as meaning any case which is not a summary case.

Carried.

Mr. Rajaram Row proposed to enter in Column 7 of Schedule D opposite each case whether it is a summary or warrant case.

Carried.